If you are employed and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. If you are an independent contractor, the copyright in the Work belongs to you, unless you have entered into an agreement with your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright, to the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of your employment. If you are an independent contractor, you should sign this Form as the Author.

Reprint/Republication Policy

The IEEE requires that the consent of the first-named author and employer be sought as a condition to granting reprint or republication rights to others or for permitting use of the Work in any form.

GENERAL TERMS

1. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.
2. The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the IEEE from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth in this Form.
3. In the event the above work is not accepted and published by the IEEE or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by the IEEE, the foregoing copyright transfer agreement shall be destroyed.
4. For jointly authored Works, all joint authors should sign, or one of the authors should sign as authorized agent for the others.
